

I am protesting Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. This a blatant violation of Federal election rules, as well as the requirement for offering equal time for opposing political points of view. If Sinclair refuses to permit the sharing of another perspective, such as "Going Upriver," they should not be permitted to air "Stolen Honor," either.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Its actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. It show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
